SOIL CONSERVATION SERVICE
Slate River Watershed Roadbank Critical Area Planting, Virginia
AGENCY: Soil conservation Service
ACTION: Notice of a Finding of No Significant Impact
SUMMARY: Pursuant to Section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969; the Council on Environmental Quality Guidelines (40 CFR Part 1500); and the Soil Conservation Service Guidelines (7 CFR Part 650); the Soil Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture gives notice that an environmental impact statement is not being prepared for the Slate River Watershed Roadbank Critical Area Planting, Buckingham County, Virginia.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Manly S. Wilder, State Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, 400 North Eighth Street, P.O. Box 10026, Richmond, Virginia 23240, telephone 804-771-2455.
SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The environmental assessment of this federally assisted action indicates that the project will not cause significant local, regional, or national impacts on the environment. As a result of these findings, Mr. Manly S. Wilder, State Conservationist, has determined that the preparation and review of an environmental impact statement are not needed for this project.

The measure concerns a plan for critical area stabilization on the roadbanks and ditches within the County of Buckingham. The planned work Slate River Watershed Roadbank Critical Area Planting, Buckingham County, Virginia will include grading and shaping, hydroseeding, and mulching. All disturbed areas will be seeded with adapted permanent vegetation.

The Notice of Finding of No Significant Impact (FONSI) has been forwarded to the Environmental Protection Agency and to various Federal, State, and local agencies and interested parties. A limited number of copies of the FONSI are available to fill single copy requests at the above address. Basic data developed during the environmental assessment are on file and may be reviewed by contacting Mr. Manly S. Wilder.

No administrative action on implementation of the proposal will be taken until 30 days after the date of this publication in the Federal Register.

Rocks

By CASSIE BALDWIN

July 1: It's quite hot and dry around here. Rain is badly needed.

A large crowd attended the ground-breaking service at Elon Church last Sunday for the new Fellowship Hall.

Herbert Goin visited his sister Flora Dickerson one morning this week.

The Laura Lee Circle went to Keysville Tuesday night for the July meeting at Betners Nursing Home.

A local group went to the W.M.U. meeting at Eagle Eyrie on Wednesday.

Nancy Williams is leading a B.Y.W. conference at Eagle Eyrie this week.

The B.Y.W. meeting met with Debbie Lakes Monday night.

A goodly number went to the cannery at Pamplin on Monday and Wednesday.

Get well wishes go out to Tommy O'Brien who has been moved to Virginia Baptist Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Almond and Tim and Mrs. Carrie Richardson were visiting Mrs. Annie Goin on Tuesday.

Zane Hamlin returned home from the hospital this week. Our prayers are with him and get well wishes go out to him and his family.

Mrs. Lockie Martin went to the eye doctor last week and got a good report.

Get well wishes go out to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Harris, who have been sick this week.

Glad Bernard Richardson is home from the hospital and doing very well. May he have a speedy recovery.

Sorry to hear Mrs. Larkin Harvey sprained her other wrist last week. Get well wishes go out to her.

Sympathy goes out to the Finch families in the death of their loved one on Thursday. He was a brother of Mrs. Dot Harvey and Mrs. Mae Coleman and others.

The Deacon Family Ministry Plan has been started at Rocks. Each deacon has several families for which they are responsible. We hope this new program will draw our church family together. Each church member should be ready to help and be more involved.

Johnny Roach burned his hand in the wheat field fire last week. Get-well wishes go out to him.

Congratulations to Raymond Keith Dickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dickerson of Pamplin who was on the Dean's List at V.P.I. He is a Junior there.

Club elects officers

The Appomattox Junior Woman's Club recently wrapped up its 1982-83 club year with a banquet held at Charley's in River Ridge Mall. The banquet was highlighted by installation of officers, conducted by Mrs. Kenneth Harris, Alice Kyle District President.

Other highlights of the banquet included the recognition of 1982-83 officers; certificates of appreciation to department and committee chairmen; and the presentation of the Outstanding Clubwoman award to Sheila Webb, 1982-83 president.

During the year, Club members spent a total of 1,922 hours on 50 various projects, donating a total of $1,219.55 to various causes. District awards were received in the following categories: Visual Arts, Home Life, Education, Conservation and Public Affairs, Leadership and Personal Development, GFWC Special Junior Project, and VFWC Junior State Project. A certificate of appreciation was also received for the Club's work with the Patrick Henry Boys' Plantation.

The Junior Woman's Club extended thanks to all businesses and individuals who donated goods and/or services throughout the year and helped make this past Club year a success. The 1983-84 Club year will begin in September.

Galilee Church news

Depart from evil and do good: and dwell forever more.

Inspirational services were held at Galilee on this past Sunday. Rev. Vater Colbert of Richmond, Va. was special guest speaker. The YSD Singers sang soul-stirring selections.

The annual trip sponsored by the Youth department and the Sunday school was a success and enjoyed by all. The visit to Kings Dominion took place this past Saturday.

The Hasadiah Baptist Association will convene with the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church of Lynchburg. The series of services and workshops will be held on July 26, 27, and 28. The Youth and Senior Choirs of Galilee will participate in the music seminars.

Plans for the annual revival at Galilee have been completed. Rev. Mason and congregation of Washington, D.C. will be our guest al day Sunday.

The Senior Choir is scheduled for rehearsal this coming Sunday at 5:30 p.m.

Let us continue in prayer one for another. May God Bless!
